2. Goal • Meet and exceed institutional goals in admission strategically (enrolment and retention).

To ensure access to higher education by all categories of students (equity and inclusiveness)

4. The content: - • The science combination of B. Sc Non-maths does not get good enrolment due to the demand for professional course. The challenges to attract and retain the students in science combinations.

• Due to the presence of many competitive institutions in the neighborhood attracting quality students BA, B.COM, BSC., CDZ, MDC, BBC, MPE, MECS, is a challenge. The admission process must be started in time through online. Otherwise delay in admission process would cause the bright students to seek admission elsewhere. It is essential to ensure general equity and access to education by the marginalized sections of the society. Following rules of the reservations as per the APSCHE.

5. The practice:

The admission process starts by notifying in Telugu newspapers given by the TTDs (Education Department) when Degree College website of TTD is opened, students can submit applications only Online, website address is <http://Admissions.Tirumala.org>.

Special Aspects: Admissions are carried out by a group of Teachers with a senior faculty as the admission committee convenor and other member. For admission committees carried out admissions in our college for groups such as Commerce, Mathematics, Biology Combination and Arts. According to seat matrix, the first list of students selected for admission is announced on the date and time mentioned in website. Last dates are made known to the applicant. Depending on the availability of the seats further admission lists are announcing following rules of reservations.

5. Evidence of success:

- The increasing trend of SC/ST/Category of students is an evidence of success.
- Reduction of dropout rate in admission to the science and commerce course is another proof of evidence.

6. Problems encountered and resource required: There has been a completion generated among the staff of different science subjects to attract the students to their subjects. This sometimes creates unhealthy debates and unrest in the system. Due to large number of students with merit belonging to reserved categories take seats for general merit quota. This entails a reduced financial resource to the college by way of fee (Reserved categories of students have lower fee to be paid as per Government norms). To ease the admission process and hasten the process, computers with good printers and high-speed Internet are essential. A robust admission software is required to generate and custom made due to various constraints in generating the admission registers, daybook entries, Receipt generation etc. In addition to computer manpower is important to complete admissions.
